

February 1, 2012

To: CWD Customers
From: Heidi Wietjes, MS, RD, LMNT, LD
Recall Coordinator

RE: Expansion of Michael Foods Hard Cooked Egg Recall

We were informed this afternoon that Michael Foods is expanding their voluntary recall of specific lots of hard-cooked egg products due to possible contamination with Listeria monocytogenes. No complaints, reported illnesses or concerns have been identified with this product, however field testing has resulted in this recall.

CWD #63073 Eggs Hard Ckd Whl Salad Tub Ref

The initial recall (January 26, 2012) was for the following product: recalled product will have a Lot number of 1362W, 1363W, or 1364W and a use by date of 2/11/2012; 2/12/2012; or 2/13/2012. The recall has been expanded today (Feb 1, 2012) to include the following lot codes: 1356W, and 2005W and a use by date of 2/5/2012 or 2/19/2012.

Following is an example of the lot codes on the packaging:

CODE: USE BY 11 FEB 12 7 LOT 1362W

- Use by 11 Feb 12 – Use by Date
- 7=Filler/line/machine (optional)
- LOT 1362W = LOT; Year, 1st day of year, Plant W

If you have any of the recalled products, pull the inventory and isolate it. Contact the CWD Credit Hotline at 800-652-0010 Ext 7159 to request a pick up and credit. In order to receive credit on the recalled product, you must request a pick up and credit from CWD by February 10, 2012.

If you have any questions about this recall, please call me at 800-652-0010 Ext 7123